Exhibitors

The following organisations are exhibiting at Aniridia Network UK Conference 2015. They specialise in providing information and support for those who are blind or visually impaired. Take a moment to visit their stands in the exhibition area.

The Royal National College for the Blind (RNC)

www.rncb.ac.uk

RNC is the UK's leading specialist residential college of further education for people with a visual impairment. They have over 60 programmes of study with a wide range of support in all areas. RNC has served a diverse audience for over 140 years.

Nystagmus Network (NN)

www.nystagmusnet.org

NN is a UK charity run by individuals and families affected by the eye condition nystagmus. Their aim is to support people with nystagmus, encourage research into nystagmus and raise awareness of nystagmus.

Blind Children UK

www.blindchildrenuk.org

Blind Children UK's mission is to enable children and young people who are blind or partially sighted to achieve their educational and recreational goals. Their ultimate aim is that every child with a visual impairment will be able to achieve their full potential during childhood and teenage years and enjoy varied and purposeful lives as adults.

Families and Special Educational Needs

www.familiesandsen.co.uk

Families and SEN provide professional support services for children with special educational needs. They can help assess a child's needs and provide recommendations on support, school, mobility, and other areas. Clive Matthews leads the organisation as a Special Educational Needs Advisor and Advocate.

Other organisations

There are many more organisations that can assist people and families affected by sight loss. Visit www.direct.gov.uk for a list of other organisations or e-mail info@aniridia.org.uk for assistance in finding one that can help.
